Title: GUIDO DE CHIARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: GUIDO DE CHIARO reported expanding his pin ball and juke box business in west suburban area. Subject's nephew, LOUIS EBOLI, believed fronting for DE CHIARO in a new company called "All American Amusement Company." DE CHIARO and LOUIS EBOLI are believed the ones behind another company doing business as "D. Gottlieb and Company" of Northlake, Illinois.

DETAILS:

On August 23, 1973, CG T-1 advised that GUIDO DE CHIARO is expanding his pin ball and cigarette machine business. He also has set up a new company called "All American Amusement Company" and he has placed his nephew, LOUIE the Mooch" EBOLI in charge of this operation.

T-1 stated the company plans to expand their operation and take in accounts outside of Cook County. This expansion may be carried by "muscle" and T-1 stated there may be trouble. CG T-1 stated "All American" will operate from the same building as M and D Music Company, which was at 2908 Commerce in Franklin Park, Illinois. T-1 stated "LOUIE" intends to hire a couple of westside punks to help him in this business.

CG 92-1875

On August 28, 1973, CG T-2 discussed the present structure of the La Cosa Nostra Family in Chicago. He pointed out how the recent deaths of a number of La Cosa Nostra leaders in the Chicago area has presented considerable problems to the survivors. T-2 stated the situation is going to get no better as several of the active senior members are reported in bad shape. He named SAM BATTAGLIA (now deceased) and JOEY AIUPPO as being possible victims of cancer. CG T-2 stated because of these deaths and illness of other active members, such senior members as "CHUCKIE" NICOLETTI and GUIDO DE CHIARO will be assuming more important roles.

On October 15, 1973, Detective [redacted] of the Arlington Heights Police Department stated an application had been received from the All American Amusement Company with address in Franklin Park, Illinois. This company requested permission to install vending machines and pin ball machines within the city limits of Arlington Heights. The names associated with this business were GUIDO DE CHIARO and LOUIS EBOLI. Detective [redacted] stated that it did not take him long to learn these individuals were associated with the organized criminal element. [redacted] stated the owners of "All American" were notified to appear and submit to interview by the Arlington Heights Police Department.

On October 26, 1973, CG T-1 stated that GUIDO DE CHIARO and his nephew, LOUIS EBOLI, are busy running the All American Amusement Company. They now have pin ball machines all over the west suburban area. T-1 stated that DE CHIARO does own a lot of pin ball machines but he was surprised to learn that [redacted]

T-1

On November 7, 1973, CG T-1 stated [redacted]

b7D

[redacted] T-1 stated it appears LOUIS and his uncle, GUIDO DE CHIARO, are now interested in expanding their pin ball and juke box business. T-1 believed they are the ones behind a new company recently formed called "D. Gottlieb and Company" of Northlake, Illinois.

CG 92-1875

On December 13, 1973, Detective [redacted] stated that "All American Amusement Company" and their attorney, [redacted], have instituted a civil suit to appeal the decision of the Village Board and compel them to permit "All American" to do business in Arlington Heights.

Title: GUIDO DE CHIARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: DE CHIARO continues to use his nephew, LOUIS EBOLI as a "front" to expand his pinball machine business. Permits have been refused "All American Amusement Company" in Arlington Heights and several other communities. "All American" now instituting court action to gain access to areas where license has been refused.

DETAILS:

On January 22, 1974, Detective [] of the Arlington Heights Police Department advised that the Village of Arlington Heights has refused to grant a license to LOUIS EBOLI to operate pinball machines within the village limits. [] stated the village is convinced EBOLI is fronting for his uncle, GUIDO DE CHIARO, and the crime syndicate.

b6
b7C

Also on January 22, 1974, Detective [] stated that his unit has run spot checks on GUIDO DE CHIARO who resides at 1725 Thatcher Road in Elmwood Park. On December 28, 1973, they observed the yellow Cadillac owned by DE CHIARO parked at his residence along side of an old 1964 Chevrolet registered to JOE MEO.

b6
b7C

CG 92-1875

On January 29, 1974, CG T-1 stated that LOUIS EBOLI and his uncle, GUIDO DE CHIARO, are definitely expanding their pinball machine interests. They reached out into Lake County but have not been successful in establishing a foothold in that area. CG T-1 stated some of the towns are giving the "All American Amusement Company" a rough time and refusing to grant them a license. T-1 stated DE CHIARO and EBOLI are now instituting court action in Cook County to gain access to certain towns where permits have been refused. CG T-1 stated DE CHIARO is using his nephew, LOUIS EBOLI, who has no criminal record as a "front" to expand his business.

On March 2, 1974, CG T-1 stated LOUIS EBOLI is still working with his uncle, GUIDO DE CHIARO, and they now have set up operations for the "All American Amusement Company" at 2908 Commerce in Franklin Park which is the exact location used by the M&D Music Company owned outright by GUIDO DE CHIARO.

On April 11, 1974, Detective [] Franklin Park Police Department, stated subject is around town in his gold Cadillac every day. He has a number of real estate investments he continually checks on in this area. He also has expanded his pinball business into other areas and apparently his new company called "All American Amusement Company" is now established in Schaumburg, River Grove, Hoffman Estates and Elmwood Park. DE CHIARO for years has been well established in Franklin Park and Melrose Park and the surrounding unincorporated area.

[] pointed out that no one has fooled around with DE CHIARO's machines since the JAMES LEONETTI killing in Melrose Park. [] stated DE CHIARO and his nephew,

b6
b7C

-P-

DETAILS:

On May 10, 1974, CG T-1 stated that there was no question in his mind GUIDO DE CHIARO was financing his nephew, LOUIS EBOLI, in the All American Amusement Company. DE CHIARO is getting along in years and prefers now to retire. He has selected his nephew to take over his operations. T-1 stated this is a good selection because LOUIS has no criminal record. CG T-1 advised DE CHIARO's [redacted]

b7D

On June 17, 1974, Detective [redacted] of the Arlington Heights Police Department advised village officials are fighting the petition of the All American Amusement Company claiming this business and the ownership does not meet the requirements of the Village as to its methods of doing business.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated LOUIS EBOLI failed to clear up the question of his "character" and his family ties with his two uncles, SAM ARIOLA and GUIDO DE CHIARO, both well recognized mafia characters.

b6
b7C

CG 92-1875

[] said EBOLI failed to show how he suddenly acquired GUIDO DE CHIARO's pin ball machine business which operated under the name of M&D Music Company. Village Trustees were convinced from the hearing on this matter that EBOLI was only a "front" for DE CHIARO and that DE CHIARO was well aware of the fact a number of villages in this area had plans to keep any "mafia people" from getting any license to operate within Village limits.

b7C

On July 18, 1974, Detective [] stated he has received no word on a law suit to be filed in EBOLI's behalf although they were notified such a suit might take place by EBOLI's attorney. [] stated DE CHIARO may have second thoughts on having this matter aired out in a court of law.

b7C

On August 9, 1974, CG T-2 advised DE CHIARO hangs around Franklin Park each day in the morning and about noon takes off for Arlington Park Racetrack. T-2 stated DE CHIARO would like to consider himself "retired" but like the rest of the old "outfit" people, he can retire only when ACCARDO and other "mafia" chiefs will let him.

DETAILS:

On August 22, 1974, CG T-1 advised that JOEY AIUPPA is still the active boss of the "outfit". AIUPPA consults regularly with TONY ACCARDO and ACCARDO consults occasionally with several members described by T-1 as "being on the Board of Directors." Included on the board among others is GUIDO DE CHIARO.

CG T-1 added that DE CHIARO and the EBOLI family still have a high rating in the Chicago area. DE CHIARO has made money for the "outfit" for a number of years and for the past few years has been assisted by his nephew, LOUIS EBOLI. CG T-1 said DE CHIARO commands a good deal of respect among "Mafia" members and can be regarded as a "mustache".

CG 92-1875

On September 18, 1974, Sergeant [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Chicago Police Department (CPD) advised that his unit covered the wedding of [redacted]

b6
b7c

[redacted] Among a number of mob members showing up at this wedding was GUIDO DE CHIARO. The wedding took place at St. Germaine Catholic Church, 9700 South Kenton, Oak Lawn, Illinois. The reception took place at Chateau Bel Aire, 10312 South Cicero in Oak Lawn. DE CHIARO was observed driving a 1973 Cadillac with Illinois license TX 4526 registered to DE CHIARO at 1725 Thatcher Avenue in Elmwood Park, Illinois. A check of this registration disclosed DE CHIARO has Social Security number 320-26-2600 and drivers license number D 260-2800-4157.

On October 24 and November 11, 1974, contact was made with [redacted]

[redacted] stated he had been contacted by DE CHIARO and other friends when he entered his new business located in the shopping center on Grand Avenue in Franklin Park. They all asked him if he needed financial help. [redacted] said he was able to handle most of the financing himself. He stated that having known DE CHIARO for years he certainly would not want "his kind of help". [redacted] stated he has known people who in the past were associated with DE CHIARO as a borrower or tenant and all were glad to get out from under.

b7c

On December 17, 1974, [redacted] advised his business is going good and to date he has not had any interference from GUIDO DE CHIARO or any of DE CHIARO's workers.

b6

GUIDO DE CHIARO

Character:

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

DE CHIARO continues to be in charge of pinball and vending machines for organized crime in the West suburban area. Subject continues to deal with De Moon Realty Company in Elmwood Park and owns valuable property in this area. DE CHIARO and his nephew, LOUIS EDOLI, are continuing their efforts to expand their pinball operations under the name "All American Amusement Company."

-P-

DETAILS:

On April 15, 1975, CG T-1 stated that an individual who is exerting some influence in the affairs of organized crime at the present time is GUIDO DE CHIARO. By way of background, CG T-1 mentioned that DE CHIARO was brought into organized crime as a boyhood companion of PAUL RICCA. He succeeded to top positions in organized crime during the reign of RICCA. T-1 stated DE CHIARO was a close associate of RICCA all through RICCA's life. At the present time, DE CHIARO is in charge of vending machines and other matters for organized crime in the west suburban area of Chicago.

On May 16, 1975, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated he has known DE CHIARO for years and this subject still has many friends and business associates in the area of Franklin Park.

b6
b7C

[] stated DE CHIARO has several good contacts on the police department in Franklin Park and still owns valuable real estate in this town.

b7C

DE CHIARO occasionally meets some of his business associates at Rick's Restaurant on Grand Avenue in Franklin Park. He continues to deal with De Noon Realty Company in Elmwood Park on his holdings in this area. [] stated there is no problem locating DE CHIARO. He still resides at 1725 Thatcher Avenue in Elmwood Park and during the morning hours, his Cadillac is seen at any number of places in Franklin Park. If the race tracks are open, DE CHIARO generally goes to the track in the afternoon.

b7C

[] stated apparently LOUIS EBOLI now has about taken over the pinball operations of subject and for all practical purposes, M&D Music Company is out of business. EBOLI has succeeded his uncle but operates out of the same garage located at 2908 Commerce in Franklin Park.

b7C

On June 24, 1975, Detective [] of the Arlington Heights Police Department advised so far they have kept LOUIS EBOLI from expanding his pinball business into their village. He stated EBOLI, who has no police arrest record, hired an attorney and threatened a lawsuit. [] said the village was willing to go to court and attempt to expose GUIDO DE CHIARO as the real owner of All American Amusement Company. Apparently DE CHIARO is reluctant to get into any court activity as the matter has been dropped. [] stated other villages in the northwest suburban area have refused EBOLI a permit to install his machines.

b7C

On June 30, 1975, CG T-2 stated LOUIS EBOLI continues to handle all the pinball machines owned by his uncle, GUIDO DE CHIARO. EBOLI has several guys working for him doing all the maintenance and repair work. T-2 stated M&D Music Company still has an answering service, but it is apparent that DE CHIARO has transferred his pinball business over to his nephew who uses the business name "All American Amusement Company."

On July 7, 1975, CG T-3 stated GUIDO DE CHIARO is definitely an important "mafia" member. Very few crime syndicate members can go directly to TONY ACCARDO with their problems. CG T-3 stated a short time ago he observed DE CHIARO with ACCARDO. T-3 stated after this observation, []

On July 22, 1975, this source stated EBOLI no longer uses his red Toronado and recently was driving a leased Chevrolet. EBOLI now meets some of his business associates at the Division Lounge, which place for some time has been a hoodlum hangout.

Apparently, EBOLI has been consulting regularly with his uncle. They generally meet in Franklin Park where DE CHIARO owns considerable real estate. Informant stated the problem facing EBOLI and DE CHIARO is whether or not they should file suit against several townships prohibiting entry of their juke boxes. EBOLI has no criminal record but a public hearing is the last thing DE CHIARO wants to become involved with.

Informant stated LOUIS has been successful in expanding their pinball operations in a number of towns and unincorporated areas. However, certain very populated villages have refused them permits. One of these is Schaumburg; another is Arlington Heights. Informant stated there are several other areas where EBOLI has had troubles.

Title: GUIDO DE CHIARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: DE CHIARO continues to hang around Franklin Park where he owns considerable real estate and for all purposes, subject is regarded as "retired." DE CHIARO still lives at 1725 Thatcher Road in Elmwood Park, Illinois. Inquiry at Arlington Heights disclosed DE CHIARO and nephew have apparently dropped their legal action to force Arlington Heights to issue permits for their pinball machines.

DETAILS:

On August 22, 1975, CGT-1 stated GUIDO DE CHIARO has transferred his pinball machine business to his nephew LOUIS EBOLI, who uses the business name "All American Amusement Company." DE CHIARO still uses the trade name "McD Music Co" but calls to this company are handled by an answering service. CGT-1 stated DE CHIARO owns considerable real estate in Franklin Park and surrounding area and has a good income from this source.

On November 13, 1975, CGT-2 stated DE CHIARO hangs around Franklin Park and drives his Cadillac around the western suburbs. T-2 stated for all purposes DE CHIARO is "retired". He has made his money through his outfit connections and still has a good income from his investments. CGT-2 stated DE CHIARO is among the old timers who does not get involved in anything and are content with their present source of income.

On December 23, 1975, it was determined that DE CHIARO still lives at 1725 Thatcher Road in Elmwood Park, Illinois. Inquiry at Franklin Park Police Department revealed DE CHIARO is still regarded as boss of pinball machines in this area and the address 2908 Commerce in Franklin Park is still DE CHIARO's business address.

Also on December 23, 1975, Detective [REDACTED] [REDACTED], Arlington Heights Police Department stated DE CHIARO and his nephew, LOUIS EBOLI, have taken no further legal action to force the village to issue permits for their pinball machines. [REDACTED] stated the matter appears to have been dropped.

GUIDO DE CHIARO

Criminal History

GUIDO DE CHIARO, an LCN member, is also known as GUY DE CHIARO and GUIDO DI CHIARO, was born in Acerra, Italy, on June 2, 1904 or February 4, 1906. He was born under his true name, GAETANO DE CHIARO, he entered the United States on November 5, 1922, and he was naturalized on July 8, 1943.

At the time DE CHIARO filed his petition for naturalization, he admitted that he had been arrested on two occasions, in 1935 and 1939, for suspicion of auto theft. Both charges were dismissed.

DE CHIARO was also arrested by the Chicago Police Department on August 23, 1951 during a gambling raid. The disposition of this arrest is not known.

In May, 1954, the Chicago Crime Commission reported that DE CHIARO had been connected with illegitimate enterprise dating back to the prohibition days, when he was in charge of the operation of several stills in the Melrose Park area. Also in May, 1954, the Bensenville, Illinois, Police Department advised that they had received information that DE CHIARO was a local boss of gambling in and around Franklin Park, Illinois.

In April, 1957, [] advised that the syndicate had given [] the western suburban franchise on slot machines formerly handled by DE CHIARO. On October 14, 1960, DE CHIARO's son-in-law, MICHAEL URGO, was shot and killed during a kidnaping attempt on DE CHIARO. The October 15, 1960 Chicago Daily Tribune reported that DE CHIARO had been the "mystery man" of the slot machine rackets in the western suburbs since the 1940s, operating under a franchise granted by his distant relative, PAUL RICCA. However, according to the article, in 1957, DE CHIARO lost his exclusive and lucrative slot machine franchise when the so-called "young bloods" of the syndicate began their bid for power from the old line leaders. SAM GIANCANA replaced DE CHIARO with []

The Chicago Police Department Intelligence Unit speculated that the attempted kidnaping of DE CHIARO was the outcome of rivalry for lucrative spots for gambling devices and juke boxes.
